

Commission on

Collegiate Nursing Education

Call for Nominations CCNE Board of Commissioners and CCNE Nominating Committee

The Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE), the autonomous accrediting arm of the American Association of Colleges of Nursing, is seeking nominations for candidates to run for election to the CCNE Board of Commissioners and the CCNE Nominating Committee. CCNE is a nationally recognized accrediting organization whose scope is baccalaureate and graduate degree nursing programs in the U.S. and its territories, as well as post-baccalaureate nurse residency programs.

The following positions on the Board are open for election:

- One representative of chief nurse administrators (e.g., deans or equivalent) of CCNE accredited nursing programs
- Two faculty representatives
- One representative who is actively engaged, as his or her primary professional role, in the practice of nursing
- One professional consumer representative who has a role in administration of a post-baccalaureate nurse residency program
- One public member representative

The term for Board members is three years. Individuals may serve two consecutive terms, if re-elected.

The Commission is additionally seeking nominations for candidates to serve as members of its Nominating Committee. Four positions are available, and the members are eligible to serve a one-year term.

In order to nominate an individual or self-nominate for a position on the Board of Commissioners or Nominating Committee, please complete the CCNE nominations packet, which includes a nomination form and consent form to be signed by the nominee. A current vitae/resume is also required.

To obtain a nominations packet, please visit the CCNE website at <http://www.aacn.nche.edu/ccne-accreditation/call-for-nominations>.

Nomination and consent forms must be completed and emailed to Crystal Pool, CCNE Assistant Director, at cpool@aacn.nche.edu no later than February 17, 2012.

For additional information about the nominations process, required qualifications, or responsibilities of Board and Committee members, please contact Crystal Pool at cpool@aacn.nche.edu or (202) 887-6791, ext. 245.